Left Page:

- Bottom Row: A 30-cent stamp (yellow background) featuring a sailing ship (the HMS Endeavour) with the text "ROYAL VISIT - MARCH 1970" and "COOK ISLANDS".
