Dearest Miss Layard - January 30th

I know how pleased you'll be to hear of our safe arrival.
The crossing was a rough one, but we were not ill - I recovered. We shall never forget how intense the cold was of yesterday as the crossing looked wiser than usual we did not dine at the Patis Buffet but were thankful to find there was a dining Car on our train from Paris so had nice dinner there - we're delighted in the glorious sunshine of today, & cloudless blue sky - we have comfortable quarters here facing the sea which is such a deep blue - lovely flowers in our room which smell so sweet. I know you will forgive me as I'm very tired this evening. Love from us both & mine to your sister too Yours lovingly - F. M. Kailton
